

BARRY ARTILLERY MEETING.

Good progress was made to-day in the competition held under the auspices of the National Artillery Association. Beautiful weather prevailed, the best of the day was enjoyed by the members. In the afternoon thunder was heard. The men are in the best of spirits, and should the favorable weather continue there is no doubt that the competition will be most successful not only in improving their efficiency as volunteers, but also in securing a number from a health point of view. There were over 200 men in camp, and the first day's march was the beginning of the second year of the Camp's progress. The 24th Northumberland men were engaged the most of the day. The operation consisted of two teams under Colonel G. H. B. ...

THE BISLEY MEETING.

Today the clerk of the weather has been his good behavior. The sun has been shining brightly, and the wind has been blowing from the south. Strange to say, marksmen have not appreciated the weather. They declare there was a sort of mirage over the target, and from the face of the matter it is not surprising that the average score was exceptionally low, one must come to the conclusion that there was something wrong with the target, which was not discovered until the shooting. In the Handicap Memorial Challenge Cup, for teams of six men who shot for the 24th Northumberland, the winners were the 24th Northumberland. The right reported at the firing point was the 24th Northumberland. ...
