thing more uncertain than the tyme and manner y^eof and that it becomes all Christians in no tyme so to dispose of and order their worldly affairs (that whenever it pleaseth the God to call them from this life) when being unburdened of their worldly affairs may with the better disposition attend upon Gods will and good pleasures in their sickness tyme And I being at present perfect and sound in judgment and memory and taking to my serious consideration the great tenderness and care which Elizabeth Merkle my on-lyfull and loving wife has allwayes had over me both in sickness and health for which I can never be enough gratefull to her Therefore w^{ill} ye me to have made my latter will and Testament in her favours as follows I'mprimus I beate my soul to God almightie believing to be saved by the free merits and mercyes of Jesus Christ my Redeemer And willing my body to be buried with the bodies of other faithfull Christians when it shall happen me to depart this life I am I Nominally to Elizabeth Merkle my kind spouse to be my only Executor Legator and univ^{er}sall Intromittar with my hault goods and gear debts sums of money and other movables of w^hatever And I appoynt her to give up-Intromittars therof for ordinary confirmation as useth I am I beate my part which is the odd part of my goods gear debts sums of money and other movables to the Elizabeth Merkle my spouse to be intromitted with and disposed upon to her at her pleasure And I hereby revoke all former Testaments granted be-me in favours of any other persons and declares the-same void and null to all intents and purposes and which are to be nowayes herunto prejudiciall And this I expressly ordain to be my last will and Testament without any declamation or contradiction In witness whereof I w^{ill} be Robert Mylne son of Wraylor
